

LOW COST INTERNET PROVIDERS

A T & T

Cost: $5 per month - 3Mbps

Cost: $10 per month - 5-10 Mbps

No commitment; No deposit; No installation fees

In-home wi-fi gateway (wireless router) and access to hot spot network is included.

Computers offered at $149.99

How do you qualify?

- At least one person in the household must receive food stamps (SNAP)
- Live within the service area
- No outstanding debt for AT&T fixed internet service within last 6 months or outstanding debt under this program

To apply:

<https://accessatt.solixcs.com/#/home>

Or call AT&T Access Apply at:
1-855-220-5211

1-855-220-5225 (Spanish)

Comcast/Xfinity

Cost: $9.95 per month – 10 Mbps

Computers offered at $149.99 – once approved for internet call 1-888-710-4156

No credit check; No contract; No installation fees

Wi-fi included with a wireless router.

How do you qualify?

- At least one child eligible to receive reduced or free lunch through the National School Lunch Program (NSLP). (Includes students in private school, parochial schools, and homeschool students).

Restrictions:

Cannot have been Comcast subscriber in the last 90 days.

Cannot have a Comcast bill over 12 months past due – if less than 12 months must set up payment plan

Cannot have unreturned equipment

To apply:

<https://www.internetessentials.com>

Spectrum

Cost: $14.99 per month – high speed 30 Mbps; no data caps

No contract required

Modem included

Add in-home wi-fi for $5 per month

How do you qualify?

A member of the household must be a recipient of one of the following programs:

- National School Lunch Program (NSLP) - reduced or free lunch
- Community Eligibility Provision (CEP) of the NSLP
- Supplemental Security Income (SSI)

To apply:

1-844-525-1574

